In this project activity, students must draw, color and name at least eight items in the bedroom. Also, they label on the walls any closets, windows, and doors, all in Spanish. Once they have illustrated and labeled the room, they produce sentences that describe the color, location, and quantity of the items in the room, using location words, 'hay,' the verbs 'ser' and 'estar', and the colors. This is a fun activity for the students, and the sentences are scaffolded with several examples.

Page 24 Hola, This worksheet aligns with, but is not limited to, Realidades 1 Tema 3B. There are five sections: Fill in the chart with SER, 2 sections with fill-ins of SER, adjective practice, and mixed English-Spanish-English translation. Vocabulary from Capítulos 1,2 and 3 are included. An answer key is included as well. I usually give this for a homework assignment, or it can act as a warm-up for 5 class periods.
