Students learn core content in English and their second language. GVA has smaller class sizes and an active and engaged parent community. Along with rigorous academics, students participate in International Day celebrations, speech festivals, and cultural performances. "We come from a Hispanic family who speaks Spanish. We love that our kids learn proper Spanish and love and embrace the language of their grandparents. I love that GVA strives to give each student what they need, such as after-school tutoring. We love GVA and know that our kids love it too!" the Miranda family Xavier's family shares, "We love Global Village Academy because of the teachers! Teachers from all over the world educate my son. He has learned about different countries that I never imagined him knowing! He brings home different traditions, cultures, and languages! We absolutely love it!"
