Wraparound contracts typically contain a power of sale clause. This power of sale clause gives a third party, called a trustee (typically a title company) the power to sell the property on behalf of the seller if the buyer defaults on the mortgage. When the buyer defaults on the mortgage, the trustee issues a notice of default to the buyer. A party may not file a document by email; documents submitted by email will not be accepted for filing by the Registry and will not form part of the court file. 21.
