Sometimes (especially when it's meant for computers), an app is compressed into a ZIP file (.zip or .zipx) to save space. Before downloading a Bible versionBe signed in to the app on the mobile device (to create a YouVersion account, select link here)Be sure to have a strong WiFi connection (preferred)Bible versions take up less than .2GBIn some cases, publishers may request access to the email address associated with the account in order for the version to be downloadedThis will not generate advertisingDownload Offline TranslationSelect the READ (Bible) buttonSelect the version short code (e.g. KJV) to the right of the book and chapterScroll through the list to find the preferred versionSelect the DOWNLOAD button (Not all versions will have this available)Once downloaded, the word will be replaced with a check markAccess Offline TranslationBe sure to access the version once while online before using offlineActivating Airplane Mode will allow version to be read without using dataCalls, text, and data cannot be accessed while in Airplane ModeDelete Offline TranslationSometimes it might be necessary to delete a downloaded version from the device in order to diagnose or fix a problem, or to free up space on your deviceSelect More (three lines) buttonScroll down and select SettingsScroll down and select Manage Offline VersionsSelect the drop down beside EXTERNAL or INTERNALYou can also change storage locationSelect DELETESelect DELETE again to confirmDownloading a version only downloads the TEXT of the Bible for use offline (audio is not available for offline use)Uninstalling the app from your device will delete all related files, including downloaded versions. However, updating the app via the app store should not affect themSome versions, including NASB, AMP, and NLT were available for download for a short while in previous years, and are no longer available. If deleted, they will not be recoverable Fortunately, downloading apps can be quick, simple and easy regardless of the kind of technology you're using. You'll need to log in or create an account complete the purchase.Photo Courtesy: Picture Alliance/Getty Images MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET Something went wrong. If you choose a paid app, you'll be prompted to enter your credit card information or a gift card to complete your order.Using the Apple App StoreThe Apple App Store hosts apps designed for iPhones, iPads and other Apple devices. Apps are no different — they're just specific kinds of files you download from the internet. Read on to learn about how and where to download apps.How Downloading Apps WorksWhen you download a file on the net, whether from a store or elsewhere, a file hosted on an online server is copied onto your computer. Short for "application," apps let you do everything from listening to music to syncing your phone to your car to playing games. (It's often pre-installed on phones and tablets, so you may already have it.) Be aware that you'll likely be prompted to sign in with your Google account or create one if you haven't already. With so many apps to choose from, however, it can be a bit daunting if you don't know how to download them. You can use the site to download apps for tablets, computers, phones, Xbox consoles, virtual reality sets and more, so it's important to check the system requirements on each app's page to ensure that the app is compatible with your device. As with Google

Play, it's often pre-installed on phones. Photo Courtesy: Kim Kulish/Getty Images Select whichever free or paid app you're interested in to see a brief description of the app. To do this, you may need another program, such as WinZip or 7-Zip, to open it, although you may also be able to open it by left- or right-clicking if your device came with the ability to open ZIP files. Choose the app you want and follow the onscreen directions to download it to your device. Photo Courtesy: SOPA Images/Getty Images Open the Google Play store on your device and then search for the specific name of the app or any broader category that might interest you. Photo Courtesy: Scott Barbour/Getty Images Apps are typically set up as executable (.exe) files, although apps meant for Apple devices often come as either APP (.app) or DMG (.dmg) files. Android is an operating system used for phones, tablets and more. If you've ever been online, either on a phone or computer, you've likely already downloaded files on many occasions. To download apps for an Android device, you can either visit the Android website or use the Google Play app. In many cases, however, downloading an app is as simple as clicking a button on an app's page. As long as there's enough space left on your device, the app will likely be ready for use once it's done downloading. Either way, once the file is downloaded, you're good to go.Downloading Windows AppsMicrosoft hosts apps on its website, which you can access via any device with a web browser. Odds are that if your phone isn't an iPhone, it's probably an Android device — brands include Samsung, Huawei, LG, Motorola, ZTE and many more. If the app is free, it should begin to download; if not, you'll be prompted to pay for it. Photo Courtesy: Future Publishing/Getty Images If you have a new phone, tablet or computer, you're probably looking to download some new apps to make the most of your new technology. Wait a moment and try again. Click on the app result to learn more about it. Like other app stores, it lets you filter apps by category, including featured apps, newest apps, popular apps, themed categories and more.
