Lets JHM send releases of information electronically to community clinics. Gives your community clinics access to review the patient's chart for coding and following up on claims. Allows for coordination of social services outside of JHM. JHM CareLink is not an EMR solution; it is a mostly read-only application with a few service-oriented features, such as procedure order entry and co-signing home health orders. These days, our culture rewards strong opinions and quick-draw conclusions. In a time when every side seems convinced it has the answers, The Atlantic and HBO are partnering on a series of short films that challenge our certainties. Civil discourse ultimately depends on a recognition that none of us has a complete understanding of the world—and that we're at our best when we engage with arguments that confront our deepest beliefs. This is how we, as a society, move toward a better and shared future. We invite you to #QuestionYourAnswers with us. Should I Be Scared?Jeffrey Wright, 03:22 Jeffrey Wright asks: Should he be scared? TypecastMichael K. Williams, 02:52 Michael K. Williams asks: Is he being typecast? My daughter has been asking a lot of questions lately. We were sharing some "just us" time the other night after her brother fell asleep, and she wanted to know whose idea it was to get a divorce - mine, or her Dad's? Oh boy. I gave her a diplomatic "Well, it was what we both wanted..." answer, but she wasn't stopping there. "No Mom, I mean, who said the words." first?" She asked, "Who said 'I want a divorce' the very first time?"He did, and he did it in an email because he didn't have the guts to say it to my face. "Well, it wasn't really like that, sweetheart," I stalled. "We had both been unhappy for a long time, so when we finally did discuss it, it wasn't a surprise and it was what we were both thinking about." "Why didn't you try counseling?" She persisted. "Kaya at school said her parents went to counseling and they didn't get a divorce." "Yes, that works for some people, honey." People who don't have another woman involved that the husband firmly plans on having a life with... "Maybe you should try it. Maybe it would work for you." "Anna, I know you mean well, and I know you'd like this to work instead of us getting a divorce, but that's just not going to be. Your Dad and I have moved too far past trying to work this out. This is what's happening now, even if it isn't what's easiest or what feels the best at this moment for everyone." She finally changed the subject and we talked about school and life and movies and life and our favorite flavor of pixie sticks and life. Then she fell asleep, and I watched her, feeling again the weight of letting her down. Someday, she'll ask these questions again, and she'll get more honest answers. She doesn't need to know every detail, certainly, and I don't want to ever vilify her father to her. He's the only father she's got, after all, and despite his poor choices, he's still a good guy, at heart. But she should know that there comes a point when you have to decide how much more you can take. When you realize you have children, and they are looking at you as the model for the relationships they will have in the future. When you know, beyond all doubt that you have to stand up for yourself, and for your daughter - and who she'll grow to be.
