Since 1993, the Examination for the Certificate of Competency in English (ECCE) has been certifying learners at a high-intermediate level. It's well-liked in Europe and Latin America, and tests all four language skills, aiming for the B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Key features include: * Certifying International English at the B2 level * Proven success for over 25 years * Secure and reliable, only Authorized Test Centers can administer You can download the full-length sample test to practice all four sections of the exam. The guide is designed for both new teachers who are learning about teaching ECCE and experienced teachers preparing students for the exam. A resource packet is available for students studying independently and teachers creating lesson plans. You can read about our test takers and how they've benefited from their international certification. Test takers can confidently prove their English skills with a Michigan Language Assessment certification that's backed by the University of Michigan and Cambridge Assessment English. The sample tests for the revised ECCE and ECPE are now available. As announced in June 2019, Michigan Language Assessment is revising the ECCE and ECPE to improve the exam experience for test takers and administrators while maintaining the high quality that's expected of the Michigan Tests. While the level of difficulty and the standards won't change, the topics and scenarios will be more suitable for a younger demographic. The total number of items will be reduced, and commonalities between task types will result in a more coherent progression between ECCE and ECPE. These changes reflect feedback from test users, changes to the test-taker population, and new thinking in language assessment. As we move toward the exam launch date scheduled for May 2021, we offer these new sample tests for test center administrators, teachers, and others who are interested in the revised exams. The revised ECCE and ECPE sample tests are full-length samples that include a test booklet with the listening and reading sections of each test, separate files with writing and speaking prompts for each test, audio files for the listening sections, and a sample answer sheet. Additionally, there are sample responses with commentary for the speaking and writing sections of both tests. You can download the ECCE Sample Test, ECPE Sample Test, and other study materials from our preparation resource library. Find free preparation material for your upcoming exams here. The Hellenic American Union Center for Examinations and Certifications is proudly sharing the new ECCE and ECPE full sample tests developed by Michigan Language Assessment, after the revisions to both exams as of 2021. These sample tests reflect the revisions that will be implemented in 2021 and will be useful for teachers and test takers preparing to take the ECCE or ECPE in May 2021 or later. The rationale behind these ECCE and ECPE revisions lies in feedback from exams stakeholders (language-school owners, teachers, and test takers), changes to the test-taker population (age, interests, etc.), and new thinking in language assessment. ECCE updates at a glance: * Tests all four language skills * Aims for the B2 level of the CEFR * Secure and reliable ECPE updates at a glance: * Also tests all four language skills * Aims for the C1 level of the CEFR * Also secure and reliable The new ECCE and ECPE sample tests are now available online for Language Schools and teachers via Orfeas platform and for all test takers through Hellenic American Union webpage. Michigan Language Assessment offers a free library of resources to support preparation, including Preparing Students guides and monthly newsletters with English assessment news and updates. The website also provides sample tests, including MET Go!, MET Sample Test 1001, and MET Sample Test 1002, which cover listening, reading, writing, speaking sections in detail.
