

I'm not a bot

Free printable letter g worksheets

Disclosure: This post contains affiliate links and I may receive a commission if you visit a link and purchase something from an ad or sponsored link shared. Purchasing via an affiliate link does not cost you any extra. As an Amazon Associate, I earn from qualifying purchases. Please see our full disclosure if you'd like more information. The Art Kit is a participant in the Target Affiliate Marketing Program, an affiliate advertising and marketing program that pays commissions to affiliates, like me, that advertise and link to Target if you buy products from Target through my link. This uppercase G outline printable is the best way to learn about the alphabet. Fill in the capital letter G with do a dot markers, letter G alphabet rubber stamps, balled-up tissue paper, cut-up bits of construction paper, playdough, gems, or magazine clippings with images that start with the letter G. Download the Uppercase Letter G Outline Printable Here Let us know in the comment section! Follow us on Amazon, Facebook, YouTube, Pinterest, Instagram, and Twitter, and please sign up for our newsletter to receive updates and FREE printables. to our entire resource library of printables (currently valued at over $5,000 and climbing).After you've confirmed your email address, you will be given a password to access our resource library, absolutely FREE. ☐☐ Love deals? Free printables? Join our Facebook Community - it's free to join and we add HOT NEW DEALS throughout the day! Check out our coupon page - we have coupon codes for dozens of shops! Visit our printable shop for even more fun printables! If you enjoyed this post, please share it on social media. Or, pin this to save it. Children are gaining a lot of knowledge around the preschool and kindergarten ages. Amongst it all they're also learning how to write, read, and color. These Free Printable Letter G Worksheets not only cover all these bases but make it an enjoyable process! All the tracing and writing activities help with learning how to write properly, the pictures, images, and words all beginning with the letter G all aid with grasping letter sounds, and all the opportunities to color help with developing their fine motor skills. Not to mention that the letter G is a pretty great letter and should be a fun one to learn! To print these Free Printable Letter G Coloring Pages for your children and students, simply follow these 3 steps: Click on the image(s) of the worksheets you'd like to use, Download the PDF file(s) to your computer, and Print! To help your young child or student learn even more letters hop on over to our Alphabet Worksheets to find pages for all 26 letters of the alphabet. Additionally, you can check out our Alphabet Coloring Pages which also has pages for all 26 letters as well as our ABC Coloring Pages which feature the entire alphabet on a single page. We think both the worksheets and coloring pages would work remarkably well together in teaching your child or student all the letters of the alphabet while doing activities they love! Print them all, put them in a binder or notebook, or bind them by yourself (using the same method we did for our free planners) to create your own Alphabet Workbook! Check out our companion Letter G Coloring Pages for additional ways to learn the Letter G. Looking for some free Letter G Worksheets for your younger children? Learning the letters of the alphabet is a key stage in any child's education. Whether you have preschool, pre-K or kindergarten students - these free printable worksheets are going to go a long way to helping them learn and have fun with letters! You are going to find letter g tracing worksheets, letter g activities, Do a Dots worksheet, coloring pages, and more! Free & Fun Letter G Worksheets for Kids! Fun coloring pages are a great way to introduce letter sounds to young children! Have your child color each item on the page and have them tell you its name. Make sure they are identifying the correct letter g word. For example, they should say "gift" and not "present." ****A quick note to say be careful with introducing letter g sounds like "giraffe" and "gem" with young learners. Wait until they solidly know the letters of the alphabet and their sounds before introducing more complicated concepts like soft g sounds and soft c sounds. This free worksheet will help your child with correct letter formation of lowercase G and capital letter G. G can be a little tricky for small hands to get the hang of, so I left lots of space for them to trace and practice. Expect for them to second guess which way the "tail" goes for a long time. They will get it over time, I promise. This practice sheet is perfect for writing lowercase letters and uppercase letters. The child will still have an example to look at and a large amount of space to work. Keep in mind that these are practice worksheets. You can always print out more if your child needs to spend more time on the skill. The handwriting skills will improve over time as their fine motor skills continue to develop. Every kid loves Do a Dots! This letter recognition worksheet is such a fun way to hunt for lower case letters and capital letters! Give your child their favorite color and watch them flex their letter identification muscles! ****If you don't have the Do a Dot markers - no biggie. Just have your child color the dots with a crayon. Or as a special letter G activity, you could have them glue pom poms to the page! Here your child can get creative! Encourage them to have fun and draw their very best letter G words! Here your child gets to find and color all the images that start with the hard g sound. It is helpful to sit with them and make sure they understand what the image represents. For example, is that "castle" or "gate?" Your kid will have a blast making their own letter g book! They can color the pictures, trace the letter g words, and even cut out the pages. All you need to do is staple it together. This letter g activities sheet has a little bit of everything. A fun maze game through the uppercase G and lower case letter G, handwriting practice, drawing, and coloring are all included! Still need some handwriting help? This sheet offers some great practice for your little learner! This letter g worksheet is another chance to break out the crayons and get learning with coloring! If they insist on coloring the doughnut anyways, at least make it green. Click Here to Download Your Free Printable Letter G Worksheets! Read Next: Free printable letter G worksheets are an engaging, easy-to-use resource for early learners! Ideal for preschoolers and kindergarteners, these worksheets provide a fantastic way for kids to practice recognizing and writing the letter "G" while enjoying adorable graphics and playful activities. Our Letter G worksheet collection is available for instant, high-quality download, so you can easily print them from the comfort of your home or classroom. Whether you're looking to reinforce letter recognition, practice tracing, or just want some cute coloring pages, these resources are perfect for hands-on learning. Grab your free copies and get ready to help your little one dive into the world of letter G! In this collection, you'll find six different worksheets that each serve a unique purpose in helping children learn the letter G. This set includes four tracing worksheets and two fun coloring pages, each carefully crafted to promote literacy, fine motor skills, and a love of learning. Here's a closer look at what's included: 1. Uppercase and Lowercase G Tracing Worksheet - "G for Giraffe" What it is: This worksheet introduces uppercase and lowercase "G" through tracing exercises. It features a cute giraffe illustration and provides ample space for kids to trace both forms of the letter. Function: This worksheet is all about helping young learners familiarize themselves with the shape of the letter "G." By tracing it repeatedly, children develop muscle memory that reinforces their writing skills. Benefits: Tracing is a fundamental pre-writing activity, especially beneficial for developing fine motor skills. It also helps kids learn the correct stroke order for writing the letter. 2. Uppercase G Tracing Worksheet What it is: This page focuses on tracing the uppercase "G." The letters are displayed in dotted lines, allowing kids to practice their strokes within designated lines. Function: The purpose of this sheet is to ensure mastery of the uppercase "G" shape by giving kids the chance to trace over and over. Benefits: Practicing uppercase letters separately can be beneficial for distinguishing between upper and lower cases, a skill that builds confidence and familiarity with the alphabet. 3. Lowercase g Tracing Worksheet What it is: Here, the focus is on the lowercase "g." Kids can trace multiple rows of lowercase "g" letters, getting comfortable with its unique shape. Function: Lowercase letters can sometimes be tricky for beginners, and this sheet gives them the repetition needed to get it right. Benefits: Practicing lowercase letters separately helps kids improve consistency and accuracy in writing. The lowercase "g" has a distinctive shape that requires extra practice to master. 4. G Words Tracing Worksheet ("Gift" and "Guitar") What it is: This worksheet introduces children to simple words starting with the letter "G," like "Gift" and "Guitar," with dotted letters for tracing. Function: By tracing words, children not only practice their letter G formation but also begin to recognize common G words, building vocabulary along the way. Benefits: Tracing words adds a layer of literacy by combining letter practice with vocabulary development. It encourages phonemic awareness and prepares kids for word recognition. 1. G is for Grapes Coloring Page What it is: This coloring page features a large "G" with a bunch of grapes. It's a fun activity for kids to color and associate the letter "G" with the word "grapes." Function: The coloring page serves as a visual reinforcement of the letter "G," associating it with an image that children can easily recognize. Benefits: Coloring allows kids to explore their creativity while reinforcing their understanding of the letter "G." It's also a wonderful way for kids to improve hand-eye coordination and motor control. 2. Letter G Coloring Scene What it is: This coloring sheet offers a playful scene featuring the letter "G" surrounded by whimsical illustrations like giraffes, grapes, and other characters. Function: Beyond practicing the letter "G," this page encourages children to explore a creative world associated with the letter. Benefits: Coloring scenes help develop concentration and attention to detail. Plus, it's a fantastic way for children to get excited about learning letters by associating them with fun images and ideas. Each worksheet in this collection is crafted with care to support young learners at every stage of their literacy journey. Here's why these printables are such a valuable resource: Promote Alphabet Recognition: By focusing on both uppercase and lowercase "G," kids learn to recognize the letter in different contexts. Develop Writing Skills: Tracing is a proven method for improving penmanship and hand control, setting a strong foundation for writing. Encourage Fine Motor Development: Whether tracing or coloring, these activities enhance fine motor skills, crucial for a variety of daily tasks. Engage in Fun Learning: With cute illustrations and a mix of activities, kids will look forward to learning time with these worksheets. Build Vocabulary: Through tracing words like "gift" and "guitar," children expand their vocabulary and begin to understand letter-sound associations. These free printable letter G worksheets are a delightful way to introduce the letter "G" to early learners. Perfect for preschoolers and kindergarteners, they provide a balance of structured tracing exercises and creative coloring activities that make learning both effective and enjoyable. Plus, they're free for personal use, making it easy to bring quality educational resources into your home or classroom. If you're excited about these letter G worksheets, be sure to check out our full alphabet collection on Mary's Printables! Each letter comes with its own unique set of worksheets, so you can keep the learning fun and consistent. Happy printing, and enjoy exploring the alphabet together! Home > Printable Educational Resources > Free Printable Letter G Worksheets These free printable letter G worksheets are specially designed for preschool and kindergarten learners. Created to enhance letter recognition and foster learning, these worksheets serve as a valuable resource for educators and parents alike. *this post contains affiliate links* This comprehensive set has 12 pages, offering a lot of opportunities for your students to master the letter G (also check out our other sets of alphabet worksheets). Designed to accommodate different levels of difficulty, these worksheets are well-suited for both preschool and kindergarten students, as well as older kids who might still struggle with mastering the letters of the alphabet. Let's delve into the assortment of pages included in this set. Dedicate one worksheet to honing the skills of uppercase G and another for lowercase g. These worksheets enough practice opportunities for young learners to write the letter G correctly and to recognize it amongst other letters. Help guide your preschoolers or kindergarteners through the process of writing the letter G with this formation worksheet. Begin by inviting them to color in the guitar image, which serves as a fun warm-up activity for their hands. These coloring worksheets are great for preschoolers as they offer a stress-free way to familiarize them with the hard G sound. One worksheet focuses on enriching their vocabulary and familiarizing them with the sound of the letter G, showcasing images that all begin with the initial sound of G, while the other asks them to identify objects that begin with G. Strengthen letter recognition skills with three engaging learning activities exclusively dedicated to the letter G. These worksheets offer a comprehensive approach to reinforcing familiarity with the letter G. Once your students have developed a solid foundation in the letter G, use this worksheet to review their knowledge and assess their progress. Engage students and promote letter recognition with these captivating Do-a-Dot Worksheets. An ideal addition to a "Letter of the Week" activity, these sheets instill excitement and reinforce learning throughout the process. With thousands of crafts, activities, worksheets, coloring pages, and drawing tutorials to print, you will always have just the resource you need at your disposal. Perfect for parents and teachers alike! Sign Up Now and Start Printing! Today I'm sharing some free printable letter G worksheets! These letter G practice pages are great for learning letter recognition, beginning sounds, handwriting, coloring, and pencil practice. Each of these letter G worksheets are simple and straightforward and are perfect to use with your preschoolers or kindergarteners. And the best part is, they are print and go. So whether you are doing preschool at home, have a room full of kindergarteners or are homeschooling, I think you will find this resource useful. Before we go over the letter G worksheets, let's do a quick review on how to teach letter G to preschoolers and kindergarteners. G is the 7th letter in the alphabet and it has two sounds: the hard sound: /g/ (grass, girl, goat) and the soft sound: /j/ (gem, giant, giraffe). When you begin teaching letter G to preschoolers or kindergarteners it's important that you stick with the hard G sound (gobble, go, get). Because introducing multiple sounds per letter will only cause confusion at this point. Another thing to keep in mind for younger children is visual letter confusion. Letter confusion is very typical when kids are first being introduced to the alphabet. Here are some examples of letters that typically cause letter confusion when it come to the letter G: The uppercase G can be confused with C, O, and Q. And the lowercase g is sometimes confused with p, q, b, and d. (Try different strategies for learning letters and sounds to help with these common mixups.) There are eight letter G worksheets in this free alphabet printable. Each worksheet helps kids focus on learning the uppercase, G as well as, the lowercase G while building handwriting, vocabulary, fine motor, and phonetic awareness skills. Here is a quick overview of each of the letter G printables in this pack: These first two letter G worksheets for preschool and kindergarten feature a picture of an item that starts with G, large upper and lowercase letter examples, and a word to trace. The next two worksheets are practice pages for learning the letter G. There is one for lowercase and one for uppercase. These letter G printables reinforce prewriting, letter formation, beginning sounds, G words, and letter differentiation. The next letter G practice page helps kids to identify the g words that begin with the hard 'g' sound. This helps to build sound differentiation between other letters in the alphabet, as well as, reinforcing the sound associated with the letter G. This alphabet tracing letter G page is for kids who are ready to start handwriting and letter formation. Follow the stroke marks and tracing lines to learn how to write the letter G correctly. This next free letter G printable is great of early readers and kids who already have basic grasp of handwriting. They are to read the word, trace the word, then draw a picture that corresponds with the word. The last page for learning letter G is a vocabulary list of G words that your kids can read, trace, and practice. Free Printable Letter G Worksheets Are you interested in this free letter G learning pack? Get them here! These are the these worksheets are an instant download and are for personal use only! For Access to this freebie, Join the Inspire the Mom Community and sign in with Grow for this exclusive content! Get it Now! Goat, girl, give, gift, good, game, goal, golf, grab, grow, gull, glob, gang, grip, grew, gold, gown, geek, gate, gong, goof, and gasp. Goat, girl, goggles, gift, and golf. For more items that begin with G check out the full list of objects that start with G. You can use this free letter pack with toddlers as well! The coloring and pencil practice is great for dexterity and building fine motor skills while introducing the letter G. For a comprehensive list of words that begin with G, check out this G Words for Kids resource! Letter G worksheets for students learning all about letter g. You'll find free letter G printables, letter G tracing worksheets, blank letter G templates, handwriting worksheets, coloring pages, cut and paste activities, mazes, dot-to-dots, puzzles and more. Our free alphabet printables are standards-based so you can be sure your preschool and kindergarten students are hitting key literacy goals while building a solid foundation for learning to read. Letter Worksheets A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z Letter G is the seventh letter in the English alphabet! Letter g is a consonant with two different sounds. The first sound is a hard sound "g". It sounds like "g-u-n" while the long a soft makes a "j" sound. It sounds like "g-i-j-n-t." Students generally hear the hard "g" sounds more often. Uppercase blank letter g worksheet with bubble letter outline. This free printable blank uppercase letter G template is helpful for students to practice letter G formation and letter G stroke order. Use this big letter A template with playdough craft stencils, activities, flashcards, and projects. More Letter Templates Free printable blank lowercase letter G template for play dough, letter formation, crafts, buttons, BINGO daubers, stroke order, activities, flashcards, and projects. Free printable blank lowercase and uppercase letter Gg template for colorings, letter formation, stroke order, craft stencils, activities, letter cards, and projects. With our free letter G worksheets, your pre-k students will build important skills like letter G recognition, letter G stroke order and letter formation, uppercase and lowercase letter identification, beginning letter sounds, and more. These free letter G printables are helpful teaching tools for older kiddos who are in need of remedial work and OT occupational therapy. This free download helps your students work on a variety of skills including letter formation, letter recognition, letter tracing, letter puzzles, letter identification, and letter mazes. More Letter Worksheets Students can fill the letter G with colorful dots using BINGO dot markers. Alternatively, use stickers, mini-erasers, letter stamps, or plastic BINGO chips to fill the letter. More Bingo Dab Worksheets Students cut out the beginning pictures and paste them to cover the uppercase and lowercase letters. These are great for letter matching, building letter identification, and fine motor skills. More Scissor Skills Worksheets Your preschool students will love these free printable letter g coloring pages! These sheets provide your student with the beginning letter G pictures to color alongside additional uppercase and lowercase letter practice. This is a free printable preschool letter G coloring page that includes beginning letter pictures to color alongside uppercase and lowercase letter tracing activities. More Preschool Letter Worksheets Free printable letter G coloring pages that help your students to recognize beginning sounds with the letter g. Check out these awesome pages to color and learn! We have a great collection of free printable letter G tracing worksheets that you can use with students to hit important handwriting standards. From prewriting letter g worksheets to cursive letter g tracing, your students will master both uppercase and lowercase letter g. Free printable letter G tracing worksheet for students to practice key letter formation skills. This worksheet provides students with stroke order examples for both uppercase and lowercase letters. Each row of letter tracing provides a gradual decrease in help so that students can begin to write on their own. More Letter Tracing Worksheets This is a free printable letter G worksheet that will help your preschool students with proper stroke order for uppercase and lowercase letter G formation. This letter a printable includes a beginning letter picture for pre-k students to trace. More Preschool Letter Tracing Worksheets These self-correcting handwriting worksheets are great for students who are learning to form capital letters. Students also complete a dot-to-dot and drawing prompt activity. More Alphabet Tracing Worksheets Students practice tracing the uppercase and lowercase letter G with this free and fun worksheet. Large tracing letters are provided for preschool and kindergarten students. More Letter Tracing Worksheets Free printable letter G maze for beginning letter sounds, letter formation, and upper and lower case tracing practice. Use playdough to bingo daubers to fill the blank letters. More Alphabet Mazes These free printable letter formation worksheets will help you students learn the necessary stroke order for lowercase letter g, uppercase letter G. This includes both print and cursive letter a worksheets. Free uppercase Letter G tracing activity for students learning correct stroke order for proper letter formation. Students start on the black dot and stop on the open dot. For letter G you can use stroke vocabulary "Big Curve, Little Line." More Uppercase Alphabet Worksheets Free lowercase Letter G tracing activity for students learning correct stroke order for proper letter formation. Students start on the black dot, and follow the green line, the yellow line, then the red line. More Lowercase Letter Worksheets Free printable cursive letter g worksheet for students to work on cursive letter formation for both uppercase and lowercase letter g. This worksheet provides ample cursive tracing opportunities. More Cursive Worksheets Is your child learning the letters? Get these free letter G worksheets to help them learn how to read and write the 7th letter of the alphabet! Learning to identify the letters- what they look like and there sounds are an important pre-reading skill. Luckily, learning the letters doesn't have to be boring! ** This website contains affiliate links. If you make a purchase using one of these links, I may earn a commission. Please click here for more information about cookies collected and our privacy policy **. Check out these free Letter G worksheets for your preschool or kindergartner to use while they learn all about the letter G. How to Use the Letter G Worksheets Learning to read is an important step in every child's education. And it all starts with the letters! These fun letter G worksheets can help solidify what your child is learning and help them remember how to form the letter G and it's sound. These worksheets focus on the primary sound the G makes- the hard G. The hard g is the sound the one heard in game, gorilla, and gate. These free, printable worksheets can be used in tons of ways, such as: As at-home summer practice so your child doesn't forget info over summer break As part of an at-home preschool program As educational coloring pages To fill a reading center in the classroom for early finishers As part of your classroom curriculum They are free to use- so print as many as you'd like! They are perfect for homeschool parents, preschool centers or classrooms. You can use these Letter Worksheets together with the Printable Alphabet Chart and the Sight Word Worksheets to help your child read faster! Download the Letter G Worksheets Now These free Letter G Worksheets offer various activities to help your child learn the letter G. They include writing, coloring, matching, searching activities and more. To download, simply click on the image or the link to download the PDF file to your device. Letter G Worksheet #1 This first worksheet has a large capital G to trace and a fun goose to color! Letter G Worksheet #2 Does your child love mazes? This worksheet features a letter G maze to get through. Letter G Worksheet #3 Help your child learn what the letter G looks like with this letter hunt worksheet! Letter G Worksheet #4 This worksheet is a handwriting sheet and a coloring page in one! Letter G Worksheet #5 Your child can practice writing both upper and lower case G's with this worksheet. Letter G Worksheet #6 Find all the capital G's with this fun searching page. Letter G Worksheet #7 This worksheet let's kids practice writing the letters and reading/writing words that start with the letter G. Letter G Worksheet #8 This handwriting worksheet provides lots of practice for writing both upper and lowercase G. Letter G Worksheet #9 This fun searching worksheet will help your child learn the letter G sound and words that start with it. Letter G Worksheet #10 This hands-on worksheet can be used with dot stickers or dot paints. Letter G Worksheet #11 This worksheet offers lots of different things for kids to explore- writing, tracing, coloring, and more! Letter G Worksheet #12 Practice writing the letter G with this handwriting worksheet. You are free to use these printable letter G worksheets for personal or classroom use. Please don't share the file, but if you'd like to share the worksheets with friends, please forward this page to them so that they can download the file themselves. This download may not be used in any commercial fashion. You may also like these educational printables: Free Printable Number Word Charts Free Printable Vowel Team Charts for Early Readers Free Printable Divisibility Rules Charts for Math Free Printable All About Me Worksheets for Kids Educational Italy Coloring Pages for Kids Free Printable Place Value Charts