Although the teaching is often done in the isolation of a classroom without the presence of other adults, the good teaching implies the consultation With colleagues. 16.95 (1-886822-01-8). This book offers school school A carefully integrated approach to transforming our often divisive monitoring³ evaluation systems ³ a positive force to strengthen school culture. They communicate their appreciation for what their students do by celebrating their successes and constantly encouraging them. Good teachers care about their students' progress and let their students know it at all times. "After adopting the RBT mÄ© all, teachers began using suggestions that offered and I gained greater credibility ... as the instructional ³ n". Tom Cardellicchio, Director, Chappaqua, NY. Schools that see themselves as professional learning communities encourage teachers to plan lessons and learn from each other. The chapter chapter bibliographies provide additional sources for new investigations. 1993. TEXT ED. Each chapter focuses on one of the sixteen areas different from performance in the classroom. All this requires an excellent communication. In addition, teachers should communicate well to collaborate effectively with their colleagues and update administrators about the progress of students. They adopt a team approach when solving problems, especially for difficult students. This helps students feel recognized and validated. Numerous examples are offered to illustrate the pedagogical approaches that are being discussed. They convey an authentic commitment and affection for their students. They are capable of «read» to your students and adapt to the needs of the individual. Teachers must be trained to listen to their students, as well as to explain things clearly. They learn the names of their students at the beginning of the school year and use their names when they are directed to them. This is especially important when the teacher transmits a difficult message about the student's misconduct or learning problems. In addition, good teachers express concern and concern for their tone of voice and the use of body language. (Orig. They need to explain the strengths and weaknesses of their students so that parents understand the message and are receptive instead of defensive ones. Defensive
