The Prada menswear show for Spring Summer 2026 featured the Kolhapuri, a flat leather sandal that made a calm and unbothered entrance under cotton poplins and colourful raffia hats. The style has never gone out of fashion in India, crossing rituals, errands, and runways without losing relevance. The Kolhapuri's seasonal aspect is the monsoon, when rubber sandals are preferred over leather ones. By the 1970s, it had entered the West's counterculture wardrobe, carried by the hippie movement. ###ARTICLE
