After you are in the main menu, on the left side of the menu, the inventory button will be present, that is where you access your Weapon Skins, Stamps, and Hats. Redeem Code Preview In the inventory, under the panel on the right side that shows the items which your avatar is equipped with, there is an "Enter Item Code" field. Enter your redeem code into there, and then press the green "Confirm' button. After a code is entered to be redeemed, the servers check it and show the player one of the six different responses below. Example of a redeemed code after v0.45.0 Redeem Code is successfully redeemed (cracked). The message has an image of the redeemed item is also added to the player's inventory. Before the UI update, the pop-up message was "Code Cracked!" No Account Found This message there is no account for the redeem code to be used on, it prevents the player from being able to redeem their code. Code is Being Processed This message shows up when the player tries to redeem their code drop as multiple people rush to redeem the same code. During code drops, only one person (the fastest) will be able to redeem it successfully. Sometimes it will ask you to try to reload the game Code is used on an account, it can never be used again by anyone else. Invalid Code This message shows up when the code that a player tries to redeem is broken. A known example of this would be the code ZWICKVWYEW. Codes become "broken" when two (or more) identical redeem codes are generated at different times. Since the servers don't know which item the code belongs to, that particular redeem code can never be successfully redeemed by anyone, resulting in an error message. You won a 1v1 Stamp This message shows up when the code that a player tries to redeem is the 1v1 Stamp. This stamp is given to players when they defeat Wizups in a Shell Shockers 1v1.
