Form 19 10c pf withdrawal download

An Employees' Pension Fund (EPF) or Employees' Pension Scheme (EPS) is a retirement scheme enfranchised by EPFO for individuals employed in organised sectors. Both the employee and the employer contribute to EPF during an individual's service period in that specific company using Universal Account Number (UAN). UAN is a unique number which is assigned to every member of EPFO and comprises of 12-digits. An EPF certificate provides the employment details of an individual – his/her service period and family members who will benefit from this scheme in case of death of an employee. When an individual retires from a company, they can either carry forward their EPF to their next company or withdraw the same. However, in case of withdrawal, that person needs to file EPF Form 10C. How to fill 10C form? Form 10C can be filed both online and offline. These are the steps needed to follow to file the online form, post visiting the official website of Employees' Provident Fund – Step 1 – Scroll down to the Employers Portal tab and click on it. Step 2 – In the next page, enter your UAN number and password in the Username and password section. Step 3 – Select the tab "Online Services" from the menu bar at the top. Step 4 – Click on 'Claim Form 10C, 19, and 31' from the dropdown menu. Step 5 – Check your employment, KYC, and member details on the next page. Step 6 – Enter the last 4 digits of your registered bank account for verification. Step 7 – Agree to the terms and conditions of "Certificate of Undertaking". Step 8 – Go to the bottom of the next page and click on the 'I want to apply for' and select "Only Pension Withdrawal Form 10C". Step 9 – Select the "Get Aadhaar OTP" button after entering your address. Step 10 – You will receive an OTP which you need to put in your form and click on "Validate OTP and Submit Claim Form". After completion of the EPF withdrawal form 10C filing process, you will receive an SMS notifying the same. The accumulated amount will be transferred to your registered bank account within a few days. Benefits of EPF 10C Form The benefits of Form 10C are available to three sets of members who fulfil specific eligibility criteria. For member type 1, the eligibility criteria are mentioned as follows – An individual resigned from his job before completing 10 years of service. An individual turned 58 years, before completing 10 years of service. The benefit available to this set of members is – He/she can avail PF withdrawal post-filing Form 10C their EPF before permanent retirement. The eligibility criteria for member type 2 to apply for EPF Form 10C are – Individuals who have fulfilled 10 years of service before turning 50 years. Individuals who are above 50 years and below 58 years. Benefits available to such a member are – An individual fulfilling both the criteria is entitled to receive a scheme certificate. An individual meeting only the 'b' criteria can withdraw a reduced pension after filing Form 10D. The eligibility criteria for member type 3 is – If the individual is a legal heir or nominee of a deceased member, past the age of 58 without completing 10 years of service. The benefit to such members is – The individual can avail withdrawal benefits after filing EPF Form 10C. If any member has retired service due to some bodily impairment, he/she can also withdraw his EPS under disablement pension after filing Form 10D. The Scheme Certificate, which will be provided to Member Type 2, also has certain benefits to it. These are – It acts as proof of the years of service of an employee. The individual can avail EPF withdrawal using Form 10C if that individual is unable to find employment after retiring from their previous job. In case, the member dies before 58 years of age, family members or legal nominee of the individual can withdraw the amount from EPS account. The eligibility criteria of the 3 kinds of members are demonstrated in the following table Member 1 Member 2 Member 3 Did not complete 10 years of service. Completed 10 years of service before turning 50 years. Legal heir or nominee of a deceased member, who was past the age of 58 and could not complete 10 years of service. Turned 58 years before completing 10 years of service Is above 50 years of age but less than 58 years. An individual is not eligible to receive any benefits if he/she is only a member for less than 180 days. Contents in EPF Form 10C Husband's name (if applicable) Address and name of a company where a member was employed before retirement. A revenue stamp of Re 1 needs to be pasted with the EPF Form 10C. EPF is a beneficial scheme for investors who are looking to guaranteed returns. However, the rate of returns in case of such schemes is limited. On the other hand, market-linked investment schemes like Mutual Funds can generate a considerable amount of gains. Individuals can invest the amount they withdraw from their EPF account into Mutual Funds for higher returns. They can withdraw 75% of the EPS corpus after 1 month of unemployment after filing Form 10C. The rest can be withdrawn after 2 months. Form 10C is a document that has to be mandatorily filled in and submitted when claiming benefits from the Employee Pension Scheme (EPS). It can be downloaded from the website of EPF India and is a 4-page document. The Form 10C is a form that should be filled and submitted when claiming benefits under the Employee Pension Scheme (EPS). Every month a part of the overall PF contributions is segmented into the Employee Pension Scheme, and this section of the proceeds from your PF account can be withdrawn using the Form 10C. What is Form 10C? Form 10C is the primary form to be submitted for claiming the benefits under the employee pension scheme. The contributions made by your employer towards your PF account is segmented into EPF funds and EPS funds. The part of the contribution from your employer that goes into the EPS scheme can be withdrawn by using Form 10C. How to Fill Form 10C online? To claim benefits under the Employee Pension Scheme (EPS), you will have to fill in and submit Form 10C. This can be done online as well. Follow the Steps given below to fill Form 10C Online: Visit the website of the Employees' Provident Fund (www.epfindia.gov.in). Sign into the UAN member portal using your Universal Account Number (UAN) and password. In the top menu bar, click on the tab 'Online Services'.
