Guides and Tips Tagsbeginner, Guides, Silver Grove, Tips Titania is a deadly and naughty fairy fame. Versatile and able to control the crowd, she can cause severe damage to a single enemy or even a multitude of them. This is Titania, the fairy queen. She can change her shape and fly to the enemies while her razorflies were torn through the enemies around her. You can also suspend them to the air conditioning and become a spa bomb, lure enemies and let them crowd before they prove themselves in command. With her in it. The team, she can extract the buffs at random from enemies that you and your allies can take, giving you a significant edge for survival on most missions. A majestic marquito you can get while doing the "Search for Silver Grove", which you can get from the new leader loka on any relay, and this guide will help you on your journey to the sanctuary to find out more about Titania and its origin. If you are looking for some ideas on how to build it, feel free to take a look at our Guide to Titania Builds. Pet Titania Blueprints from Silver Grove QUESTYOU can get the main drawings and components of Titania in this quest, but before you start, you must complete the main mission "The Second Dream" and must react H Master Rank 7 to unlock the Silver Grove Quest. To start getting started on the search, you should visit New Loka, which can be found on any relay. Then, ask the leader Amaryn about "The Silver Grove." will inform you about the Grove Silver located in the purest location on Earth and that the dead person is looking to parade it. The new one will tell you that the new Loka plans to awaken the old defenses that keep keep keep keep place. After talking to Amaryn, the mission can be activated by going to the Mission Menu in the Codex.The mission has three phases to complete:Phase 1 (Get the Titania Systems Plan) Once you start the mission, you will immediately receive an Apothic Nightfall Plan and a voice print, which is a voice record of an unnamed Orokin-era researcher. After hearing the voice print, you need to use codec or synthesis scanner to locate and scan several plants that will be necessary for the elaboration of the Nightfall Apothic.You can bring Helios or Helios Prime which has the Investigator mod. This allows Helios to scan enemies and objects within a given radius.This will also work on plants needed for the mission, allowing you to identify and collect them easily.If you do, remember to equip the codec or synthesis scanner, or both, to be able to use the scanning loads needed for Helios to scan.Nightfall Apothic Resources500 Credits2x Morphtics2x Dusklight Sarracenia6x Moonlight Dragonlilies12x Sunlight ThreshconeDusklight Sarracenia can be commonly found around or at the toxic waste pool at Ceres, Grineer Shipyard Tileset.Moonlight Dragonlilies are uncommon and can be found near areas of grass or bodies of water overnight on Earth, Grineer Forest Tileset.Sunlight Threshcone can be commonly found on the ground near trees during the day, also on Earth, Grineer Forest Tileset.Equip the Apothic on your computer once you have finished making it. Next, he is commissioned to visit E Prime on Earth and find a small sanctuary. You will be fighting Grineer patrols along the way, and with Amaryn's help, it will be a little easier to find the location of the sanctuary.Once you get to the place, you must anoint the great stone altar that will consume the Apothic. The altar only requires consuming the Apothic once, so Even if they have friends and allies with you doing this mission, you do not need to anoint the altar. Then a voice will be heard around the altar altar asking what you're doing. Amaryn thinks this is the sacred voice of the Grove. A Loki Knave Wraith and its clones will suddenly appear and attack, which you must kill, so you can finish extracting to complete this phase.Then you will receive Titania Systems Blueprint and another Apothic blueprint for the next phase.Finding all the plants can be problematic and annoying.Phase 2 (Get Titania Chassis Blueprint) You will receive a Tw Apoptic Plant Illumination and another voice print. After listening to another voice record from the researcher, it is necessary to locate and scan the various plants needed to create the Twilight Apothic Resources500 Credits2x Morphtics2x Moonlight Jadeleaf6x RukAeAs Claw6x Lunar PitcherMoonlight Jadeleaf are rare and can be found near the grass. overnight water on Earth, Grineer Forest Tileset.Ruka's claw can be commonly found around the wet and shady areas on Mars, Grineer Settlement Tileset.Lunar launcher can be found commonly around other decorative plants, inside rooms, and on the lunar floor in Lua, Orokin Moon Tileset. poetic on your computer once you've finished crafting. Once again, you have to return to E Prime on Earth and anoint the altar again.Then the same voice as before will speak again but telling you to come out.An Orphid Saryn Wraith will appear and attack, after defeating him, the voice will speak again and mention Titania. Amaryn will begin to doubt the sacred voice.Upon completion, you will receive the Titania Chassis Blueprint and finally, the final Apothic Blueprint.Phase 3 (Get Titania Neuroptics Blueprint & Main Blueprint) You will receive your final Apothic and a voice print.After listening to the researcher's last voice record, it is necessary to locate and scan the plants needed again for this final shot.Nightfall Apothic Resources500 Credits2x Morphtics2x Sunlight Jadeleaf8x Frostleaf12x Vestan MossSunlight They are rare and can be found around the grass or water water weather of day on Earth, Grineer Forest Tileset.Frostleaf can be found in a large lot around the sides of the cliff at Venus, Neptune, and Pluto, Corpus Outpost Tileset.Moss dress can be commonly found in the shady rocky terrain hidden in Mercury, Phobos, Saturn, Uranus, and Silk, Grineer Asterus Amaryn will retire from the mission after hearing the last voice print. However, Ordis will urge you to complete the mission.After equipping the Sunrise Apothic, you will have to go back to the same place again, then Amaryn will appear and talk to the grove with disapproval.After their conversation, you will have to anoint the altar again for the last time and then a Wraith Oberon Fevarch will appear and attack. He will tell you to run away as he will try to contain the Grineer, but Amaryn appears again with determination and tells you to stay. and defend the sanctuary.Now you must protect the sanctuary for 2 minutes against Grineer, including napalms, Flame Leaves, Elite Lancers and Hyekka Masters.After defending the sanctuary, the voice will be introduced as Silvana the head of Titania and the Silver Grove.Silvana tells them about Titania and how he tried to protect her. Amaryn promises Silvana that Titania will fly once more.When you complete the mission, you will receive the Neuroptic Plan of Titania.Then you will receive a message from Amaryn in your inbox declaring the doctrinal change of the New Loka and with the message is the Master Plan of Titania, finally completing all the necessary plans for the Battle of Titania.M Make sure you have enough scanner equipped.The best war pictures for the Silver Grove missionThe Silver Grove mission involves the discovery of the past that leads you to the revelation of Titania and allows you to acquire it upon completion.Although this mission is considered very difficult for most players, it can be quite challenging for those who have made the most progress in the game. most of the time you will face you will face Grineer, so having a Warframe that can face multiple troops would be good or a Warframe that can withstand a lot of damage.When facing multiple enemies, keep in mind that Grineers are not like Corpus and are therefore very prone to abilities.You can use Table, although it may be strong but remains vulnerable when you use your Peacekeeper. choice, as it is able to withstand the damage with its buffalo armor that allows you tank all enemies, even the spectrum. It also has War Stomp to disable AoE and Roar to increase damage.Frost "Your snow globe blocks projectiles and slows the enemies inside and your avalanche ability can freeze everything around you solid.Ember "Her AoE skills can aim at all enemies no matter if they are in a building, she has a multiple fire ability that can cause damage AoEVol You can use her shields to block all projectiles, use her impact skills to stun the enemies and kill them.Titania Farm (Getting Resources) After getting all the blueprints of the mission The Silver Grove, you can now proceed to cultivate the resources to build it.Then you can finally build the Titania WarframeTitania NeuropticsTitania SystemsTitania Chassis Titania Blueprint15,000x Credits15,000x Credits25,000x Credits150x Alloy Plate1x Control Module3x Nitain Extract1x Titania Ne Neuroptics2x Neurodes800x Plastic3000x Ferrite1x Titania Systems2,500x Polymer Pack2,200x Cryotic900x Rubedo1x Titania Chassis700x Circuits1x Teluro1x Teluro1x Orokin CellCrafting MaterialsThis is a list of planets that have the resources to create your Titania, you can Do missions or use an Extractor on Earth to maximize your chances of getting the resources you would need.CommonAlloy Plate Venus, Jupiter, Ceres, Sedna, Pluto and PhobosPackage of polymers "Mercury, and Uranus Ferrite »A« Mercury, Earth, Neptune and Orokin VaconinCominal Rubedo A «Earth, Pluton, Sedna, Europe, Foils and Vacuational Plasticics» Circuits of Uranus, Pluto, Eris and Phobos Venus, Ceres and Kuva FortressCryotic Excavation Mission and Resource CachesRareControl Module Neptune, Europe and the VoidNeurodes Earth, Eris, Orokin Derelict and LuaTellurium is a rare resource that can only be obtained with a few specific missions.Archwing MissionGrineer Sealab MissionGrineer Asteroid Fortress Mission.Nitain Extract is a unique resource that can only be obtained in a few ways.Purchase of Nightwave Intermission OffersGift of the LotusComplete Ghoul Purge BountiesFarm from Resource CacheConclusionAgriculture will take a while as some of the resources to build the Titania require some specific missions or ways, but completing this construction will be worthwhile for both the great story and the powerful Warframe.Titania is one of the few Warframes that come with a versatile kit. Her skills will allow you to be a strategic support and, at the same time, a destructive Warframe along with her excellent crowd control that make her one of the most versatile Warframes in the game.Let us know if we missed something or if you want to add more ideas and tips, or if you have any questions you feel like asking.
